Social and Personal.

The Poet's Content. "I am content to be so weak.

Put strength into the words I spoak,
And I am strong in what I seek.

"I am content to be so bare
Before the archers; everywasso
My wounds are stroked by neaveny air,

"I laid my soul before Thy feet."
That Ir sees of fair and sweet should walk to other men on it.

"I am content to feel the step Of each pure Image!—let there keep To mandragore, who care to pleur,...

"I am content to touch the brink Of the other goblet, and I think My bitter drink a wholesome drink.

"Because my portion was assigned Wholesome and bitter—Thou art kind, and I am blessed to my mind

"Gifted for giving, I receive
The maythorn, and its scent outs
I grieve not that I once did grieva.

"In my large joy of sight and touch Beyond what others count for such, I am content to suffer much.

"I know-is all the mourner saith,-Knowledge by suffering entereth And life is perfected by death."

—E. B. Browning.

Meeting of the U. D. C.

The regular meeting of Richinond Chapter, Daughters of the Conhederor, will be held at Lee Camp Ha. Wednesday, September 14th, at 5 o'710-s.

Delegates will be elected to the St. Iouis convention, to convene October 3d to 9th, and to the State convention scheduled to meet October 28th in Petersburg. The Richmond Chapter, having nearly five hundred member; should, in the opinion of its president, be well represented in St. Louis.

The Hamilton Hotel, in that c'ty, coveniently located and on direct car lines to the exposition grounds and to committee as U. D. C. headquarters itining the October convention. Special and very reasonable rates have been secured at the Hamilton for delegates and their friends. The hotel is first-class, and parties wishing to secure these rates should communicate airect with Mr. W. F. Williamson, hotel presiding and manager, at once Tickets to the exposition will be sold by the railroad lines at one rate, plus 12, for the curad trip.

The following paragraphs from a cir-following paragraphs from a circular letter of importance sont out by the Petersburg Chapter of Daughters, will be read with interest by Ricliniond and Vignita Daughters.

will be read with interest by Ricinion'd and Virginia Daughters:

"The entertaining Chapter requests the names of all delegates accredited to the convention be sent by null for Mrs. Bartlett Roper, chairman committee on homes, No.22 South Market Street, Chapter will be entertained white in Petersburg, van One delegate from each Chapter will be entertained white in Petersburg, and arrangements will be made at the hotel for special rates for other delegates or Daughters who win to attend the convention at their own expense.

Elliott, chairman committee on commemorative meetings, No. 27 Bottourt Street, Norfolk, Va., requests each chapter to notify her at the earliest convenience of the names of all Dauriners who have died during the past year, and the fate of deaths.

(MISS) M. RUTH JENNINGS,

(Prest, Va. Div. U. D. C.

(Pres't. Va. Div., U. D. C. MRS. W. PRYOR JONES, Rec. Sec. Va. Div. U. D. C:

Now on Hanover Street.

The Rev. Dr. J. T. Whitley, presiding lder of the Rappahannock District of he Virginia Methodist conference, who nakes his headquarters in Richmond, and who has been living in the Pace lats, No. 610 East Main Street, for the sast eighteen months, has removed to No. 2006 Hanover Street. His friends and correspondents and those of the mam. correspondents and those of the mem-bers of his family should make a note of this change of residence.

McCormick-Dexter.

McCormick—Dexter.

The engagement has been announced of Mr. Stanley McCormick, youngest son of the late Mr. Cyrus H. McCormick of Chicago. "the reaper king." and Miss Katherine Dexter, one of the foremost corporation lawyers of the Chicago bar. Miss Dexter is traveling with her mother in Germany. It is understood that the wedding will take place in Parls, September 19th. Miss Dexter is famed for her beauty and intellectual brilliancy. She will marry one of the wealthlest young men of Chicago. Mr. Stanley McCormick is a brother of Mr. Harold McCormick, who married the daughter of Mr. John D. Rockefeller.

Judge Taliaferro Entertains.

Judge Taliaferro Entertains.

Judge James Lyons Taliaferro, of "Church Hill," Gloucester county, entertained last Monday in honor of Judge and Mrs. Welltord and Rev. and Mrs.
H. A. White, of Columbia, S. C.; Rev.
and Mrs. William Boyd Lee and Missea
Wellford and Lee. Miss Lean Taliaferro presided graciously. Church Hill is one of the oldest and most interesting inland places in Gloucester. A loop-hole, a relic of ante-Revolutionary days is still shown in the massive doorway.

Picnic at Red Hill. Judge Taliaferro Entertains.

Picnic at Red Hill.

Picnic at Red Hill.

A very gay house party was recently given by Mr. F. S. Jennings in the home of his sister, Mrs. Ala Chambers says the Appomattox and Buckingham Times of this week, which goes on to say:

On Wednesday, under the escort of Mr. F. S. Jennings, four of the guests went on a plonic to the home of patriot and orator, Patrick Henry. And every courtesy was shown the visitors by Mr. Marshall Henry. The grounds were thrown open to them for the day, and they laughed and talked and swung until the evening shadows began to fall.

Then on Thursday afterneom Mr. Charles Marshall gave the young people a squirrel siew, which was followed later in the evening by an lee cream supper given by Mr. James Chambers on the lawn at his home.

Among the visiting guests were Mr. Henry Terry and Dr. Lukin, of Pamplins: Dr. C. W. Jones Wolfer Hungellins:

Henry Terry and Dr. Lukin, of Pamp-lins: Dr. C. W. Jones, Walter Hunter and brothers, Mr. Clarence Pugh, Mesers.

Price and sistors.

Those spending the week were Miss Lucie Fugh, Miss Sallie and Addle Hunter, Miss Olie May and Annie Lyle Jennings, and Miss Ella Douglass Thornton.

Personal Mention. Misses Mury and Florence Bell, of Eliz

LADIES, ATTENTION.

M. Bannett & Co., the fashionable tadles Tallors of New York and Rich mond, wish to announce that Mr. Bannett has just returned with a large selection of Improver Models and Novelies, which are on exhibition at 710 W. Main Street. All our patrons and ladies in general are cordially invited.

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Counsel.

By ALICE CARY.

Other selections from Alice Cary, her portrait, autograph and biographical sketch

EEK not to walk by borrowed light, But keep unto thine own; Do what thou doest with thy might, And trust thyself alone!

Work for some good, nor idly lie Within the human hive; And though the outward man should die. Keep thou the heart alive!

Strive not to banish pain and doubt, In pleasure's noisy din;
The peace thou seekest for without Is only found within.

If fortune disregard thy claim, By worth, her slight attest; Nor blush and hang thy head for shame When thou hast done thy best.

What thy experience teaches true Be vigilant to heed; The wisdom that we suffer to Is wiser than a creed.

Disdain neglect, ignore despair. On loves and friendships gone Plant thou thy feet, as on a stair. And mount right up and on!

ed from a visit to Rawley Springs.

Miss Frankie Liggett, of Harrisonburg, is studying to become a trained nurse in Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Richard Evelyn Byrd, Jr., and Mr. Philip Williams, of Winchester, will enter the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., this fail.

Miss Helen Somerville and Miss Clara Chalk, who have been visiting friends in Staunton, have returned to their respec-tive homes in this city.

There was a reunion of the family of Mrs. Virginia Payne in Warrenton recently. All of her children, her two sonsin-law, Dr. Douglass and Mr. Owens, were present. Captain Payne, United States army; Mr. Fitzhush Payne, of Washington; Mr. Keith Payne, of Chicago, and Mrs. Owens, of Durham, N. C., were present.

Miss Barry, of Warrenton, entertained her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stinson, of New York, on Tuesday afternoon in a drag hunt after the hounds of Mr. Wilmer Elackwell. The ladles riding were Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Maddox, Miss Forbes and Miss Barry. Mr. Stinson was mounted on Orafiamme, and the other men were Mr. Wilmer Blackwell. Mr. Waddox, Mr. Wortham, of Richmond; the Messrs, Carter, Mr. Edward King, Mr. Leonard Horner, Mr. Julian C. Keith and Mr. John Hayes. After the ride tea and sandwicnes were served to the riders and spectators.

Mrs. W. H. Cialborne and daughter, Miss Lizzle, are the guests of Mrs. L. E. Goodwin, of Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Helen Parrish, who has been spending some time at Jefferson Park Hotel, near Charlottesville, has returned home, Mrs. Charles L. Todd is back in Richmond after spending several weeks at "Glenmore," the home of Hen, and Mrs. J. W. Todd, near Staunton.

Mr. John Hunter, Jr., and Mrs. Hunter are the guests of Mr. William Kean and Dr. F. L. Woolfolk, of Louisa, Va.

Miss Annie Vaughan has been visiting late Colonel J. M. Cutts, and a grand-abeth City, N. C., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sanderlin, of North Twenty-fifth Street, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor have returned from a visit to Rawley Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Perin, of New York, who were married at the Church of the Holy. Communion last Monday,

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Perin, of New York, who were married at the Church of the Holy Communion last Monday, salled Thursday afternoon to visit Mrs. Perin's mother, Mrs. Sartoris, in England.

September 25th is set as the date for the marriage of Miss Pauline Astor to Captain Spender Clay at St. Margaret's Church in London. The bishop of London will perform the ceremony. Miss Pauline Astor is the daughter of William Waldorf Astor.

The National Geographical Congress will recall to Washington three of its honorary vice-presidents—the Italian ambassador, the British ambassador and the Chinese minister. Baron des Plances and Sir Chentung Liang-Cheng will attend the congress also in the capacity of delegates from their countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, who have been summering in Albearle, will spend the winter in New York.

Misses Gertrude, Virginia and Emma Clarke have returned from a very enjoy-able stay at Bowling Green, Va.

Mr. Thomas H. Kinney, of Staunton, Va., will matriculate at the University College of Medicine, in this city.

Miss Susie Edwards is visiting Mrs. A. Robinson in West Point, Va.

Mrs. Cooke and family, Mrs. West, Mrs. Pleasants, Miss Longworth and Miss Dansy are Richmond guests who have been summering at the Palmer cottage at West Point.

West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Davis, eccompanied by their little Ervin, have returned from Nashville, Tenn., and are at No. 215 East Franklin Street.

Miss Georgia Cardoza, who has been visiting, Miss Page Ellyson in Newport News, has returned to Richmond, accompanied by Miss Ellyson, who will be her guest for a week.

bridegroom's home in Westmoreland.

Mr. W. T. Hancock will join his daughters, the Misses Hancock, at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

Colonel and Mrs. Richard Maury have moved into their beautiful new home at the corner of Franklin and First Streets.

Mrs. Winn's house, No. 220 East Franklin Street, has been entirely renovated during her absence in New York this summer. The addition of a large bow window in the dining-room, as well as a front plazza and white paint everywhere, has quite transformed and greatly improved the apearance of the house.

J. P. MORGAN'S APPETITE ASTOUNDS THE CANADIANS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MONTREAL, September 2-J. Picrpont Morgan's appetite, as testified to by himself, has astonished Montreal. With the Archbishop of Canterbury and his party Mr. Morgan visited the flower show yesterday.

"Oh, a beautiful thing!" remarked His Grace, stooping to smell a bunch of cut flowers.

Grace, stooping to shiel a bunen of cut flowers.

Mr. Morgan was across the alsle.

"Fine melon, that," he remarked, point-ing to a remarkably large muskmelon.

"Ate a melon like that for breakfast this morning." not a whole melon. Mr. Morgan?" remarked Mrs. Davidson, the wife of the Archbishop.

"Oh, not the outside," returned the millionaire, regulably, "but I do eat one every morning."

every morning."
Mr. Morgan lingered at a case where some magnificent grapes were exhibited. Sighing, he turned away.
Mr. Morgan refused to discuss his visits to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

ADMIRAL DEWEY GETS OVER EIGHTEEN THOUSAND

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ish ships and other property in Manila Bay on' May 1, 1898.

Mrs. Charles B. Gridley, whose husband commanded the Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship, will receive 18,413.15.

The other commanders of the American warships which took part in the battle will receive the following sums:
Captain Benjamin P. Lamberton, 33,003.55; Captain N. M. Dyer, Baltimore, 89,011.32; Captain Frank Wildes, Boston, 55,357.15; Captain J. B. Coglam, Raleigh, 55,554.51; Commander Asa Walker, Concord, 33,384.01; Commander E. P. Woods, Petrel, 22,849.09; Captain D. D. Hodgson, McCulloch' $1,754.29.

The amount awarded to each of the

A VANDERBILT ARM IS DOG SCRATCHED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT, R. I., Spetember 2.—Mrs.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt had her left forearm scratched by a dog early last evening, and while the wound is not serious, it may leave a mark.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was holding her poodle in her arms when a large dog jumped

Mrs. Vanderbilt was holding her poodle in her arms when a large dog jumped at it. She drew away quickly to protect her pet, and in doing so exposed her forearm to the claws of the big dog, which made a scratch several inches long.

Mrs. Vanderbilt went to a drugstore, where the wound was treated and where she was advised that it would probably never cause her any trouble. It is not thought the dog was vicious, but was merely in a playful mood.

THE INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 4, 1904.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

STUDIES IN THE OLD TESTAMENT.

SUBJECT: Elijah Encouraged-I, Kings xix: 9-18. "Fear thou not for I am with thee."—Isaiah xl: 10.

is a continuation of that of list Sunday, there being no break in the narrative. It will be easy, therefore, to make con-these boxes, while I ate the pill that remained. It would be quite as deadly, end, for either you or I shall never see "'You dog!' I sa containing common by soda crackers and the moisture proof package

The difference will be found in the contents. Uneeda Biscuit—always dry, crisp, clean, pure. A treat in their goodness; a satisfaction in their wholesomeness; an advantage in their fully explained his action, a rehearsal exhibiting the degeneracy of the times and the hopelessness of the man. It is in four items: First, Elijah had been very jealous for God, to which reference was made centuries after (Romans, xi: 3.) An artent and consecrated man feels disappointment as a cold and formal soul cannot. Becond, in the midst of his earnest efforts for the Lord his fellow countrymen, who ought to have been in full sympathy with him, had forsaken the covenant. He was denied human support and comort. Third, his co-laborers, the promant has been also and that faith of the country of th so much as an apology. His reasser lon-however, was naturally and measurably proper.

Service.—(Verses 15, 16 and 17.) What shall be given to such a man to do? What can be done by one who has been sealous for God, but who by reason of opposing circumstances has been discouraged? Can he be trusted with any further services? God took the man at his word, at his own estivate of himself, as he treats most men. He determined to put another in the prophetic office and to use Ellish in adjusting certain preliminaries. These preliminaries were of two kinds—one political, the other religious. Ellish was directed to return by the wildeness way toward Damascus and anoint a new king for Syria and a new king for Israel-Husael for the former (If Kings, viii; 12) and Jehu for the latter (If Kings, viii; 12) and Jehu for the latter (If Kings, viii; 12) and Jehu for the latter (If Kings, viii; 13) and to anoint Elisha to be the head of the prophets. The purpose in this change of officials was plainly set for thing people. He now intended to employ severe mensures. Hazael, Jehu and Elisha were to be executioners, and at their hands many would fall by the sword. War would succeed peace.

REMNANA.—(Verse 18), on one point Elijah had been mistaken—he had misjudged the national apostasy, which was far from being universal and looked forsaken. The Colonant, oresting that

THE OUT AND KEEP IT. YOU WILL WANT TO READ THIS STORY LATER. IF NOT NOW.

A STUDY IN SCARLEY

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

One of Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

Description of the Shelock Holmes' Adventures.

By A CONAN DOTIE

By A CONAN DOT